

Optional Professional Development Opportunity

Eric Jensen

Thursday, April 7 -- 9:00 – 3:00
Sockwell Center

Eric Jensen presents . . .

Teaching with Poverty in Mind

This training will give you background knowledge, key skills and practical roadmap for academic success with kids from poverty. You will learn how to successfully understand poverty in a totally new way and how to intervene in positive, practical, research-based ways that can skyrocket achievement scores.

Eric Jensen grew up in San Diego, California. He has classroom experience teaching reading and study skills. Additionally, he has taught for three universities as an adjunct professor in both education and business. Eric Jensen completed a Bachelor's degree in English at San Diego State University with Distinction. Currently he is completing his PhD in Human Development and has written 26 books and published 10 journal articles. He is currently a member of the Society for Neuroscience, The President's Club at Salk Institute of Biological Studies, NY Academy of Science, American Psychological Association and International Mind, Brain and Education Society.

These staff members are invited to attend from all elementary and early childhood campuses:

- Principals
- Assistant Principals
- Literacy Specialists
- Intervention Specialists
- Instructional Support Teachers
- Bilingual Instructional Support Teachers
- Title I Teachers
- PACE Specialists

In addition, principals of Tier I campuses may select one additional teacher to attend this training session. Tier II, III, and IV campuses have the option of selecting two teachers to attend. Campuses may request sub code(s) from Betsy Gust by emailing the name of the additional teacher(s) who will attend.